2013-2017 DREAM Team, CSUSB, Department of Psychology

Advisor: Manijeh Badiee, Ph.D.

Position: Team Lead, Sexual Assault Prevention

The Sexual Assault Prevention project aimed to conceptualize and implement an effective sexual assault prevention education program centered on the Yes Means Yes (YMY) philosophy of affirmative consent and an enthusiastic “Yes.” Under the guidance of faculty supervisor, project responsibilities included creating the IRB, selecting appropriate surveys, creating vignettes and focus group protocol, facilitating focus groups, quantitative data maintenance and analysis, and organization and supervision of oral and poster presentations.

On a separate project, Impact of Microaggressions on Mental Health, our goal was to identify the impact of microaggressions on the mental health of individuals who are members of a marginalized group (e.g. ethnic minority, gender, sexual orientation, religion, etc.). Under the guidance of a faculty supervisor, project responsibilities included creating focus group and interview protocol, recruiting participants, focus group facilitation, qualitative data transcription, and open coding data analysis.
